5. Communication or Procurement of Unpublished Price Sensitive information

- I. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- II. No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Further, the Policy for Determination of Legitimate Purpose forms an integral part of this Code as Annexure A.
- III. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - A. entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
 - B. not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.
- IV. For purposes of clause iii of this Code, the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of clause iii, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
- V. The board of directors or head(s) of the organization of every person who required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database (if applicable).
- VI. The board of directors or head(s) of the organization of every person who required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings (if applicable).

Further, entry in Structured digital database should be maintained irrespective of the fact that the information is shared internally or externally.

- VII. All information which is required to be collected from the designated person, should be collected till date of service of such employees with the Company and shall make efforts to collect it till one year after resignation from service. The same shall be preserved by the Company for a period of 5 years.

6. Trading When in Possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

- I. No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation: When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: -

- i. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 of regulation and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub clause (iii) of clause 5 of this code or as per Regulation. Provided that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- ii. the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of this code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under regulation.

- iii. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- iv. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- v. in the case of non-individual insiders: –
- a. the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

- b. appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
- vi. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5 of the Regulation.
- II. In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons and in other cases, the onus would be on the Board.
- III. The Board may specify such standards and requirements, from time to time, as it may deem necessary for the purpose of this code.

7. Trading Plans

- I. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure (formats of the same are enclosed herewith) pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his/her behalf in accordance with such plan.
- II. Trading Plan shall;
 - a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - c) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - d) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - e) set out either the value of trades to be affected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be affected;
 - f) not entail Trading in securities for market abuse.
- III. The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

IV. The trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the Securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in Securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

V. Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities are listed.

Minimum Standards For Code Of Conduct To Regulate, Monitor And Report Trading By Designated Persons And Immediate Relatives Of Designated Persons

1. Background

Regulation 9(1) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (the “Regulations”), as amended from time to time mandates every listed company to formulate a code of conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading by its designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons (the “Code”).

2. Definitions

The definition of the key terms used in the Code are given below. Further capitalized terms are not defined herein and shall have the meaning assigned to them under the Code and Regulations.

“Material Financial Relationship” means a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

3. Chinese Wall Procedures

Chinese wall procedures and physical arrangements (collectively ‘Chinese Walls’) shall be used to manage confidential information and prevent the inadvertent spread and misuse of price sensitive information. In general, Chinese walls separate areas that have access to price sensitive information (“Insider Areas”) from those who do not have such access (“Public Areas”). As such, Chinese walls are designed to operate as barriers to the passing of price sensitive information and other confidential information.

Where Chinese wall arrangements are in place Employees working within an Insider Area are prohibited from communicating any price sensitive information to Employees in Public Areas without the prior approval of the Compliance Officer.

Employees within a Chinese Wall shall be responsible to ensure the Chinese Wall is not breached deliberately or inadvertently. Known or suspected breaches of the Chinese Wall must be referred to the Compliance Officer immediately.

The establishment of Chinese walls is not intended to suggest that price sensitive information can circulate freely within Insider Areas. The ‘need-to-know’ principle shall be fully in effect within Insider Areas. In exceptional circumstances, Employees from the Public Areas may be allowed to ‘cross the wall’ and given price sensitive information by following the ‘need-to-know’ principle, under intimation to the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer would duly record reasons for crossing the wall in writing. Such persons shall be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of UPSI, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

4. Trading Restrictions

All Designated Persons shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below: -

Trading Window

The period prior to declaration of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is particularly sensitive for transactions in the Company's securities. This sensitivity is due to the fact that the Designated Persons will, during that period, often possess Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. During such sensitive times, the Designated Persons will have to forego the opportunity of trading in the Company's securities.

The Designated Persons and their immediate relatives of the Company shall not deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed. The period during which the trading window is closed shall be termed as prohibited period.

The trading window shall be, inter-alia, closed at the time of: -

- declaration of financial results;
- declaration of dividends (interim and final);
- change in Capital Structure;
- mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions; and;
- changes in key managerial personnel.

The period of closure of the trading window shall be effective from the date on which the Company sends intimation to the Stock Exchange advising the date of the Meeting, up to 48 hours after the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information/intimation is submitted to the Stock Exchange/made public.

Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

Provided that the trading window restriction shall not apply in respect of:

- a. transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub-clause (1) of regulation 4 of Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board;
- b. transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

5. Pre-Clearance of Trades

Any Designated Person (including immediate relatives) of the Company, who intend to trade in the securities of the Company during the period when the trading window is open, exceeding the limit decided by the Compliance Officer, shall require to pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder. The Compliance Officer is authorized to change the limit of market dealing from time to time.

Pre-dealing Procedure

An application for pre-clearance of trade shall be made in the format set out in code/Regulations, as amended from time to time, to the Compliance Officer along with an undertaking in favor of the Company by such Designated Person or his/her immediate relative incorporating, inter-alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

- a) That the Designated Person does not have any access or has not received "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking in the format enclosed in the end of this Code.
- b) That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information" after signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he or she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he or she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
- c) That he or she has not contravened the provisions of this Code or Regulations, as amended, from time to time.
- d) That he or she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- e) The Compliance Officer shall on receiving an application provide the Designated Person with an acknowledgement on the duplicate of the application.
- f) The Compliance Officer shall retain copies of all applications and acknowledgements.
